Bismillahir Rahmanir Rahim

Ramadan berkunjung lagi, kedatangan yang dinanti oleh setiap jiwa yang suci mahupun mereka yang mengharapkan keuntungan duniawi.

Bazar-bazar ditegakkan di sana-sini. Barangan dapur, pakaian, perhiasan rumah sehingga kereta-kereta turut dipamir untuk menarik pembeli. Terasa kemeriahan dalam suasana membeli-belah. Di suatu sudut tersedia musolla bagi membolehkan pengunjung tidak lupakan tanggung jawab terhadap Tuhan Yang Maha Rahmah.

Masjid-masjid juga kembali meriah dengan Jemaah. Dari segenap lapisan umat, mereka beriftar bersama menikmati juadah. Mereka berdiri dalam satu saf dengan menyingkarkan segala perbezaan yang bercanggah, bahkan tazkirah dan qiyam turut dinanti meskipun terwujud di keheningan awal pagi.

Terasa kesyahduan merendah hati kepada Tuhan dalam ibadah.

Segala suasana ini hanya terwujud di dalam Ramadan dan tidak dapat disaksikan di luar bulan yang diturunkan Al-Quran yang dijadikan pedoman oleh setiap insan yang berjiwa ihsan!

Namun yang menjadi persoalan dan cabaran apakah kedatangan Ramadan yang nantinya pasti pergi hanya menjadi suatu tradisi musiman bak gelombang di lautan yang ada pasang surutnya, namun batu-batu besar di pantai tetap membatukan dirinya walau dipukul ombak pagi dan senja?

Atau, apakah kedatangan Ramadan dan perginya nanti berperanan bak hujan yang turun menyerap ke tanah yang menjadikan tanah itu subur dan menyuburkan tanaman di atasnya?

Ramadanlah detik perubahannya, bulan rahmah inilah titik permulaannya. Pilihan ada di tangan kita, ketentuan yang dituju pastinya berdetik di jiwa dan benak kita.

Mari kita mulakan langkah untuk menjadi Muslim yang berjiwa rahmah... Rahmah dalam membangun keluarga, rahmah dalam pergaulan dengan jiran tetangga, rahmah terhadap hidangan santapan kita, bahkan rahmah dalam membeli belah dalam menyambut Raya...

Janjikan dalam jiwa setiap kita

"RAHMAH BERMULA DARIPADA SAYA"

Selamat Menyambut Ramadan.

Building Successful Families Through Family Activities

By Hadijah Abu Bakar

Families today face a number of challenges as they try to navigate their way towards success. For Muslim families, success is defined not just through having a good outcome in this world. True success comes in the Hereafter.

Nonetheless, the Prophet (pbuh) has reminded us to seek both success in this world and the hereafter. Hence both have an importance in our life, albeit in different measures.

In a hadith narrated by Aisha r.a., the Prophet (pbuh) said, "The best of you is he who is best to his family, and I am the best amongst you to my family." Al-Tirmidhi Hadith 3252.

The Prophet (pbuh) does not perform activities to the extreme but instead looks at small, consistent actions that become good habits later for the whole family.

For the month of Ramadan, families have even greater motivation to begin and sustain activities that can make them closer and attain success together.

Get a checklist online just for children or create one for the family. Print stickers or posters to motivate the family to perform more deeds together. Or join a programme for families this Ramadan at the nearest mosque or Muslim organisation.

Afraid of running out of time to do activities with your family?

Look out for the things that will distract you from each other, like watching too much television or spending time on your handphone applications. Record your hourly activities and sit down with your family to think of ways that you can actually spend time together. The aim is to spend time to talk, appreciate one another and make du'a for each other, uninterrupted. If you are breaking fast at the mosque, then sit down with your child after every iftar this Ramadan and read the Quran together.

What are some activities that can be inculcated into our family and help us become successful?

- Perform salah (prayer) together
- Have dinner together daily
- Read the Quran after Maghrib
- Have weekend physical activities
- Fast together outside of Ramadan
- Spring clean the house together
- Say 'goodnight' or salam before bed

Use the 3 Rs for Habit Formation: Reminder · Routine · Reward

• Reminder

As an example, read the Quran daily as a family after salah (prayer) together at home.

• Routine

The time, place and things that you use as a family for the recitation of the Quran should be fixed so that it becomes a routine.

• Reward

Reward the family with hugs or even kind words after the recitation. Extrinsic motivation can work too such as giving out warm drinks.

Interestingly, habits take a minimum of 21 days to form. The month of Ramadan is 29 to 30 days long, more than the minimum 21 days. What is important is to perform the act in a steadfast manner.

Let's make du'a that this Ramadan be better than the one before, insha Allah!

“Sesungguhnya orang-orang yang bersedekah baik laki-laki maupun perempuan dan meminjamkan kepada Allah pinjaman yang baik, niscaya akan dilipat-gandakan (ganjarannya) kepada mereka; dan bagi mereka pahala yang banyak.”
